NEW KNOXVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

In this book we are attempting to give you more than a record of facts and faces. We hope to recall life as we lived it for twelve years, our hopes and ambitions, our endeavors and efforts, our successes and attainments. We would interpret for ourselves and all who read now and hereafter the values for which our school stands. . .a silver chord of memory "for the future."

Here is a typical scene from a board of education meeting. Seated from left to right are: Walter Henkener, Leonard Schreer, LeRoy Deerhake, Elmer Henschen, Reinhart Vehs, William Altstaetter

Due to the expiration of the terms of Florenz Katterheinrich and A. K. Manbeck, we were unable to include them in the above picture.

Message from the Administration

To the Students of New Knoxville School:

Somewhere I picked up a statement that is attributed to Henry Ford: "Start where you stand". That sentence contains an uncommon amount of common sense.

Plainly enough, whether you are a graduating senior, graduating eighth grader, or one of the students in another grade, you have to start on a future project from where you now stand. The important point is to start — not just stand still.

Whether our nation is in a state of crisis or whether it is at peace with the world, you as young people should make carefully formulated plans for a successful future. Day by day the tools of learning and thinking and doing have been placed in your hands by teachers who have dedicated their lives to the teaching of the youth of this nation. Therefore, with faith and courage in the heart, take the step ahead into your future life.

It is hoped that New Knoxville School has and will continue to materially assist young boys and girls in planning for themselves a worth-while life, the future of which will become their responsibility.

EDNA KATTERHEINRICH

Cooks

He may live without books, - what is knowledge but grieving?
He may live without hope, - what is hope but deceiving?
He may live without love, - what is passion but pining?
But where is the man that can live without dining?

Janitor

A popular, necessary, and industrious man in school is our janitor, Lawrence Kuhlman. Being the first to arrive at school, he unlocks the doors, tends the furnace, and handles any emergencies that might arise.

He has congenially listened to all the complaints, demands, and excuses from the students and faculty for eleven years, and we certainly commend him for his patience and cheerfulness.

Bus Drivers

Not an uncommon sight every day is the departure and return of five shiny school buses driven by Leroy Schroer, Arnold Haberkamp, Oliver Buddemeyer, Clement Stienecker and Kenneth List, which take the students to and from school. We realize the tremendous responsibility these drivers have and recognize a job well done.

Librarian

Our combined school and public library contains approximately seven-thousand books and twenty-five magazines for the reading enjoyment of children and adults and the enrichment of the school curriculum. The Memoir staff and the entire student body wish to thank Mrs. Grewe, the present librarian, and all who gave their services to this library.

Office Secretary

No, this isn't one of the New Knoxville seniors sitting behind that desk. It's Mrs. LaRue Schrolucke, our school secretary. She takes care of everything from student finances and paying bills to doctoring cut fingers and answering hundreds of questions.

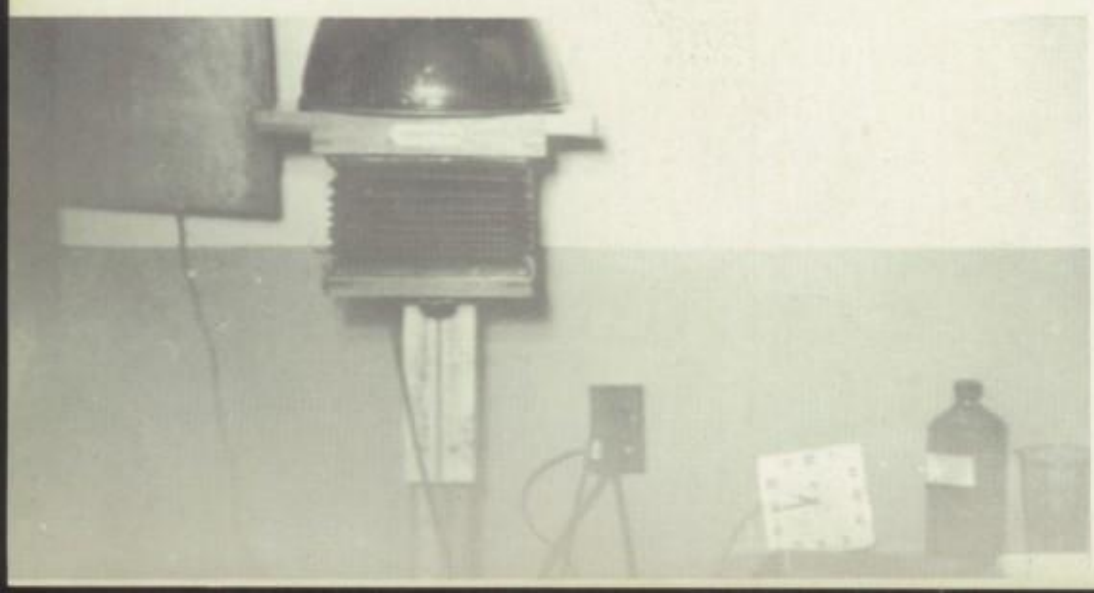
News Club

This year the news club, consisting of twelve members and Mr. Hoover as advisor, published a bi-weekly newspaper, the "Quix of '56".

The editor, Juli Hoge, wrote an editorial each time, besides having to arrange the articles. The activities of the school year were given special attention by Roberta Schrolucke and Karen Lammers. Eileen Clausing and Annely Wierwille compiled and typed the elementary news, while Donna Eschmeyer typed the Junior High news. The sports section was handled with all the skill possessed by Ruth Warner. Ella Mae Kuck, the feature writer had the job of dreaming up and writing the features. Of course no newspaper is complete without a "Smile Awhile" section. The credit for those smiles goes to Anne Jones. Joyce Schroer and Gene Bubp did all the drawing and found all the different ideas for the covers.



Photography Club

This year, we started a new kind of extra-curricular club — the photography club. This club is composed of those in the upper six grades who want to know more about cameras, and those who want to learn how to take and develop pictures correctly. The club has as its advisors, Mr. John Musser and Mr. Owen Hoover. Gene Bubp, the club president, helped very much through his knowledge of photography and art.

During the course of this past year, many pictures were taken, some of them good, and some of them bad. Many of the pictures in this Memoir were taken and developed by the senior members of the photography club.

Because this was the first year for the photography club, there are many things to be learned yet, and we hope that in the future, this club will continue to be as successful as it was this past year.

Recreational Club

At the beginning of the school year, the officers representing each class got together and formed a recreational committee. With the help of this committee, a carefully planned schedule was made so that each class, alternating weekly, would have charge of the different activities. These activities were — dancing, basketball, ping-pong, shuffle board, box-hockey, baseball and dart ball.

Needless to say, everyone acclaimed the program a worthwhile contribution to the students' morale.

The Future Farmers of America consists of eighteen members: eleven freshmen, three sophomores, three juniors, and one senior. Our advisor is Mr. Frank Kelley.

Each of these eighteen members has a project such as production projects, improvement projects, crop products, and supplementary projects. The production projects we have this year are swine, dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep and poultry.

We sold seed corn during the year. This has helped boost our treasury considerably.

Our activities included a pest hunt, a field trip to see a professional basketball game, and the buying of an electric dehorner. The pest hunt was organized of two teams: the "Shinboners" and the "Crickers". The "Shinboners" won by a small margin. Most of all this year, we enjoyed the basketball game we saw in Lima; the Globetrotters defeating the Boston Whirlwinds.

Between the Acts of the Junior Play the audience was favored with the song "Beautiful Ohio" sung by Gloria Wierwille, Jane Henkener, Elnor Arnett, James Henschen, Willis Telljohann, and Duke Katterheinrich. Joan Kettler played bell solos. They were "The Bells of St. Marys", and the "Halls of Ivy".

We wish to thank Mr. List for the wonderful directing he gave our play.

Aloha Isle

On May 13, 1955, the seniors of '55 were honored with the first Hawaiian prom given in NK's history! The juniors chose "Aloha Isle" as their theme which was carried out very well in a green, red, and brown atmosphere. In the center of the floor was a small gold fish pond, surrounded by a beautiful Hawaiian garden. At the front of the stage was the band stand, occupied by the Rhapsodiers. Gliders were placed around the auditorium under an awning of crepe paper, and in the corner of the gym was the snack bar, from which delicious punch and cookies were served all evening.

The juniors' mothers served a very inviting dinner preceding the dance. The Presidents' welcome and response, and the Superintendent's remarks were the beginning highlites.

The program was very informal. The usual prophecy and gifts were presented. Annely and Donna opened and closed the program with appropriate Hawaiian medleys, and, unexpectedly, several members of the audience offered their talents.

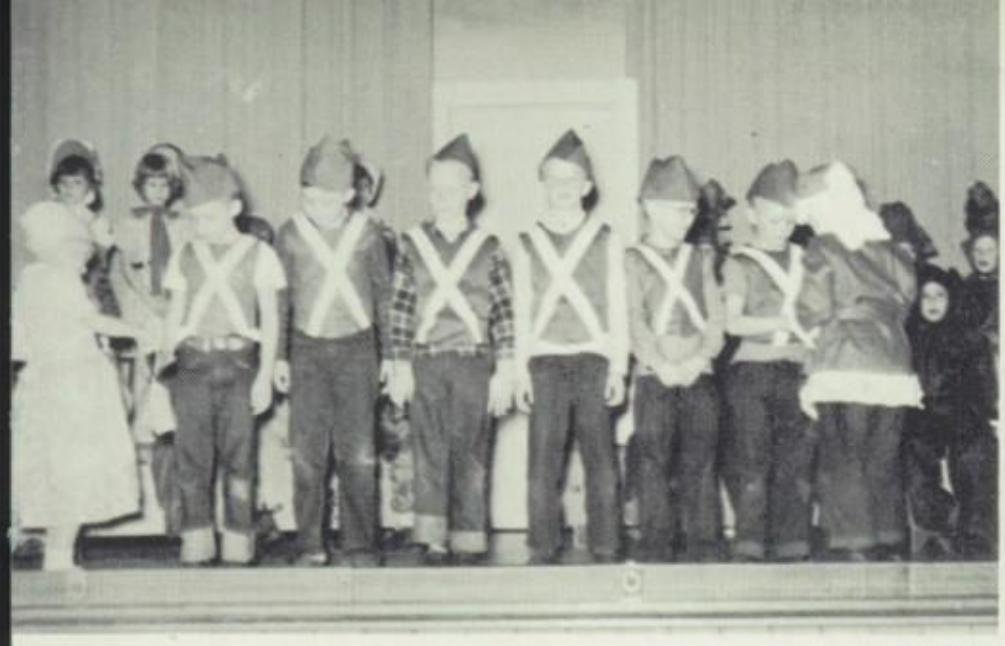
The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. We all wish to thank Mrs. Newell who was in charge of the prom.

Mistletoe Ball

About one week before Christmas December 17, 1955, the Junior Class sponsored a Christmas party under the direction of their class advisor, Mr. Hoover.

The decorations and the program centered around their theme, "Mistletoe Ball." Several of the skits presented were "Night Before Christmas," "All I Want For Christmas," "Little Match Girl," "Nothing For Christmas," and "Frosty The Snowman."

Later in the evening a delicious lunch was served which several of the mothers prepared.



THE CARNIVAL

On November 4, the P.T.A. sponsored a school Carnival which brought out an enormous crowd of people.

Parents and friends came to see the children in their room shows and also to see the upper six grades present the "Midwestern Hayride" on the stage in the auditorium.

A delicious menu was served all evening in the cafeteria.

The fishpond was again the main attraction for the kiddies. Contests of all sorts and cake walks were patronized by all.

This Carnival has truly been a success.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

On November 23, the seventh and eighth grade put on the Thanksgiving program, under the direction of a faculty committee: Mrs. Fogt, Mr. Kelley, and Mr. Hoover.

The Junior Band opened the program with several religious numbers, followed by the group giving Scripture in the form of responsive reading, led by Paula Bubp. Rev. Wynd gave prayer and the audience sang an appropriate hymn. Members of both classes then presented two short skits, "The Secret of Giving Thanks," and "The First Thanksgiving." To conclude, the two grades recited Psalm 100 and led the group in singing "We Gather Together." Patty Hinze then dismissed the audience with a good wish for Thanksgiving, and thus began our Thanksgiving vacation.

On February 22, a program was presented by the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades which the student body, faculty, and parents enjoyed. The fourth grade is proud to say that they wrote their own play, and everyone had a part in it. They sang songs in honor of famous people born in February. The fifth grade gave a two-act play of the unforgettable character Davy Crockett," portraying his early and later life. "Put Your Little Foot" and "Captain Jens," were the Leadoff numbers, presented by the sixth grade. Also, two comic dialogues, "The Sewing Society" and "Telling the Truth," were given. Everyone enjoyed the program.

Principal Bob McClure bids a quick good-bye to school secretary Evelyn Schroer.

"Why don't you just hibernate all year a-round, you sleep so much," acting secretary Anne Jones tells slow, sleepy, Lee Schroer.

"Cut out this joking" says teacher JoAnn Ott to the acting principal and vice-princi-pal Eileen Clausing and Dean Deerhake.

"Oh! I think I'm going to faint", says stu-dent Donna Eschmeyer to play director, Ella Mae Kuck.

Coach Dean Kuck discussing the tournament with teachers Nathan Stienecker and Ruth Warner.

"What's the meaning of this," says Ned Niemeyer, president of the school board, who walks in on basketball star, Clark Fron-ing, and substitute Home Ec. teacher, Dean Deerhake, in the middle of a fight.

"O.K.! Have your old bucket" says cleaning woman Annely Wierwille, as she turns it over on janitor Gene Bubp's head while stu-dent Joyce Schroer watches in amazement at these typical school proceedings.

The High School Chorus this year consisted of ninety-three members and these members were fortunate in having Mrs. Edith Wissman as their director. They were also lucky to have Ella Mae Kuck as pianist.

During the year the chorus participated in the combined Christmas and Spring concert with the band.

The chorus also presented selections for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

Probably the highlight of the Chorus season was the successful staging of the operetta "An Old Kentucky Garden."

The students have enjoyed working with Mrs. Wissman and want to thank her for her patience and co-operation.

Cridersville	1	3	4	New Knoxville	12	11	1
Mendon	1	1	3	New Knoxville	1	0	1

Although the Rangers were without the services of four of last year's regulars, due to graduation, they were able to come up with a winning combination. During the fall season the Rangers won five games and lost two, while the Mendon game ended in a deadlock, one to one, when rain halted the play. One of the highlights of the season was Nathan Stienecker's no-hit pitching against Cridersville on September 9th.

As the spring season nears, the entire squad is anxiously looking forward to the Auglaize County Tournament which is to be held in May.

The Rangers were the county champions last year and have visions of repeating the honor this year.

1955 Season 1956

As the Rangers started their campaign, they were faced with the problem of filling six positions left by graduating seniors, three of which were starting berths.

After a slow start, the Rangers were able to hold their own throughout the remainder of the season. They were successful in winning four of five league games which enabled them to capture second place in the league standings.

County & District Journeys

In the 1956 Auglaize County tournament, the Rangers beat a fine Waynesfield team in their first encounter. After defeating Buckland rather easily, the Rangers lost to New Bremen in the championship game. This made New Knoxville the County Runner-up and advanced the Rangers to the Northwestern District Tournament held at Celina.

There the Rangers drew Van Del in the first round, but were unable to keep up with the fast moving and sharpshooting Rockets. This game ended the high school basketball careers of the four seniors on the squad.

Steam! Steam! Steam!
Have we got a, sure we got a,
Team! Team! Team!

Yes, this cheer is rated as "best supported by the fans," but of course there is the needed colorful and planned direction of the cheerleaders.

Sportsmanship is another qualification necessary for the cheerleaders. Only through their personality and resourcefulness in stopping derogatory remarks, may a school's reputation be lowered or advanced to higher standards.

We are sure that our school's reputation has once again been raised through the effort of the New Knoxville Cheerleaders.

Coach "Muss"

Meet John R. Musser, or "Muss," as we know him. Although only five feet seven inches tall, his ingenuity and aggressiveness combined to make him one of the outstanding leaders of our school. We are proud to have worked with you, and we say, "Thanks Muss, thanks for everything." You're our "Coach of the "Year."

Managers

Here's a riddle for you to solve.

Who covers up for all the equipment that disappears through their incredible packing system? Who spend hours over a washing machine as it slowly but surely chews up all trace of suits, socks, etc. thrown therein. Or, who is it that can so very efficiently turn a simple cut into a compound fracture, thru application of first aid? And, last but not least, who is it that can turn Coach Musser's records into a cowboy western?

Basketball

Have you guessed it? Well, it's the three managers appearing above. Jim Henschen, Bob McClure, and Dean Deerhake.

Managers

Mrs. Holtkamp's

Twenty-one girls and sixteen boys entered the New Knoxville School in the fall of 1955. It was a new experience for all of them as students, but most of them enjoy it now.

Mrs. Caroline Holtkamp is the first grade teacher and has taught that grade for the past thirty-two years.

Mrs. Matilda Fledderjohann assisted Mrs. Holtkamp the first part of the year.

Seventh Grade

Beginning this school year, the seventh grade had enrolled eleven girls and seventeen boys. Our advisor, Mr. Kelley, assisted us in adjusting ourselves to the new routine of study. We enjoyed several class parties, participated in junior-high basketball games, and were members of the junior-high chorus. We are also happy to announce that the seventh grade is showing interest in band activities.

We took part in a Thanksgiving program for the entire student body and the community. In order to make money, the class has taken on the project of collecting sales tax stamps.

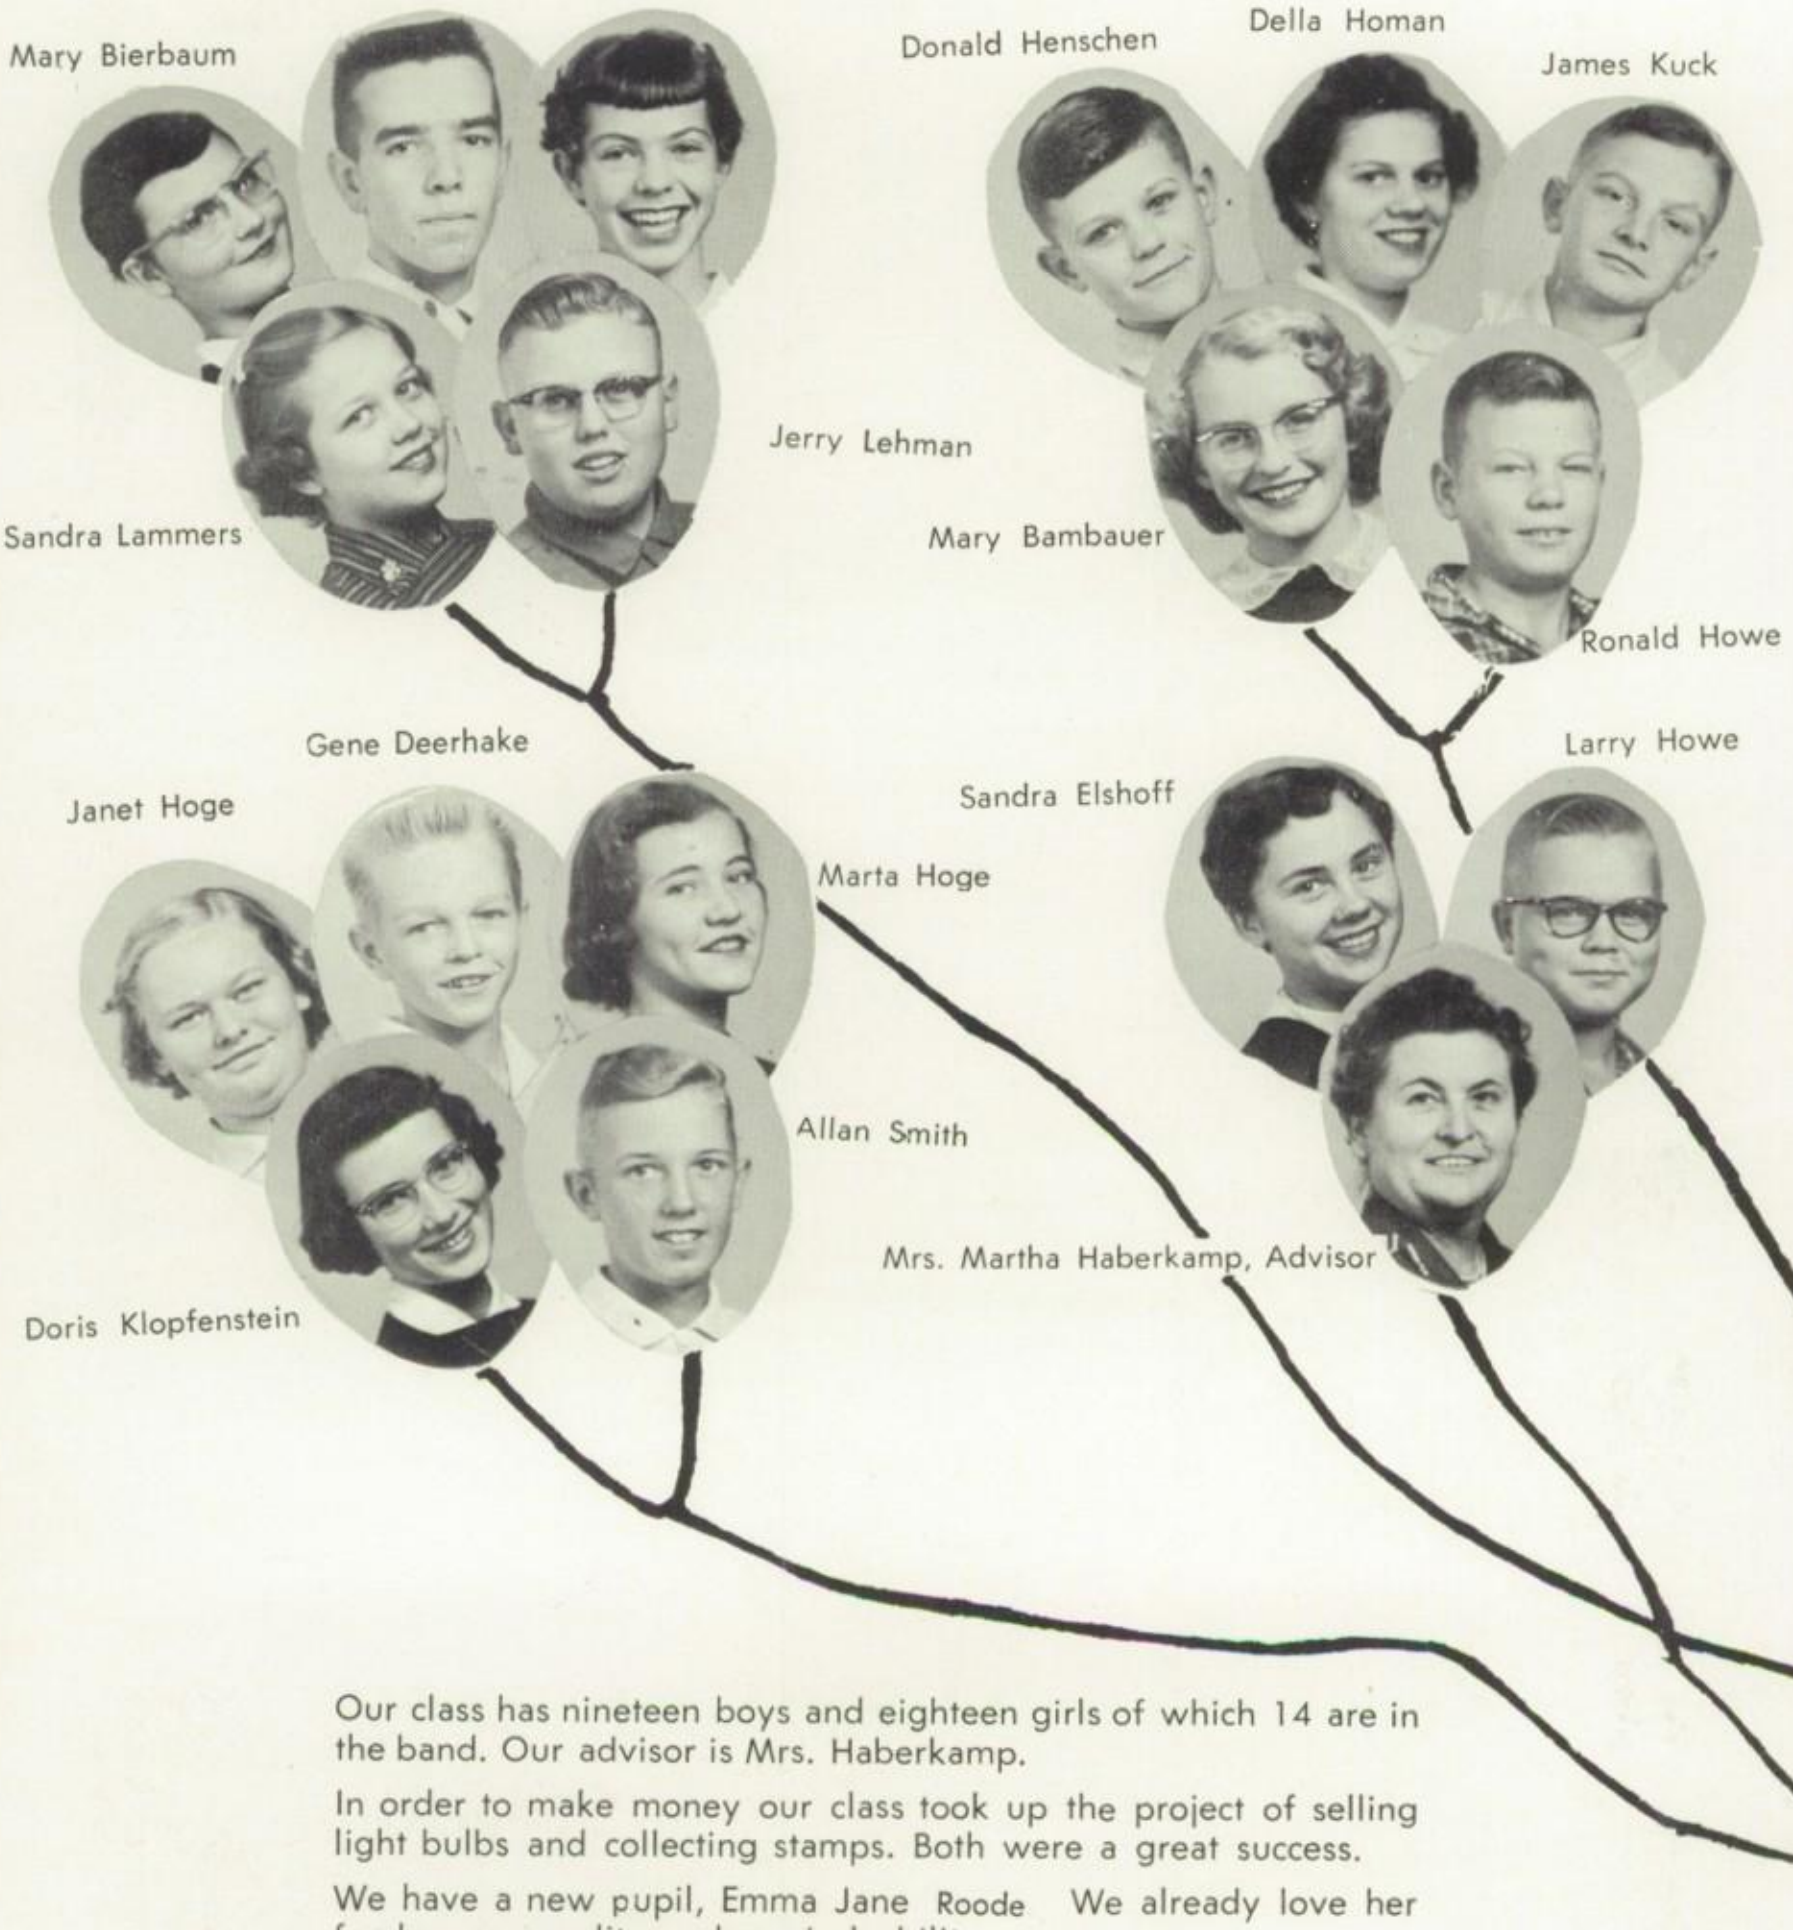
Class Of



Our class has nineteen boys and eighteen girls of which 14 are in the band. Our advisor is Mrs. Haberkamp.

In order to make money our class took up the project of selling light bulbs and collecting stamps. Both were a great success.

We have a new pupil, Emma Jane Roode We already love her for her personality and musical ability.

We are proud to have two girls in cheerleading. They are Jean Gritzmaker and Sandra Lammers.

We gave our first High School Party in October and we hope everyone enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed giving it.

Class Of

This year our class has eleven girls and nine boys, of which eighteen are in the chorus and three are in the band.

In the fall we gave a play called "In Spring The Sap" directed by Mr. Kenneth List. Our advisor, Mr. Hoover, has taught in New Knoxville for the past two years, and one year previous to that in Indiana.

Thanks to the New Knoxville community, we were able to conduct a very successful magazine selling campaign. It is also our honor to sponsor the Jr. and Sr. prom this spring.

Class Of May 1956

Class History

It was a tough day for us that Tuesday, following Labor Day, 1952. For many long years we had wondered what the day would be like when the high school accepted us as Freshmen. Now we were finding out. Soon, our class advisor, Mr. Freymuth, made us feel right at home. He greeted all twenty-eight of us, including our new class member, Faye Duncum, with that friendly attitude with which we had come to know him. During the year, our class took part in practically all of the school activities, and we'll always remember the thrill of going to our first high school party.

It was a much wiser class that came back the following September. We not only knew how to study, but also how to play. This we proved by sponsoring a successful Hallowe'en party. During the year, our enrollment dropped to twenty-five. Faye Duncum moved to Alaska, Reinhold Paulat continued his education in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Leland Shroyer and David McCune found other interests. Again we were fortunate enough to have Mr. Freymuth as our advisor, and with his help we began earning money for the added expense we would encounter during our Junior and Senior years. Gene Bubp moved here from St. Marys, and Ronald Kuck returned after a long illness. We now had twenty-seven members in the class of '56.

Our Junior year is one we'll always remember. That year we became the proud owners of our class rings, we presented our class play, "Love Is In The Air", which was a huge success, and we gave the beautiful Junior - Senior Prom, "Aloha Isle", which everyone enjoyed. The class continued to be very active and our enrollment remained at twenty-six, having lost Nolan Harlamert, who moved to Dayton, and regained Marilyn Lettel, who had been with us in grade school. Our class met an entirely new advisor and teacher that year, Mr. Hoover. He was very helpful in preparing the annual Christmas Dance, and leading us on to higher scholastic standing.

As sophisticated Seniors, we entered into the swing of education with an interest never before realized. Among our senior highlights were our play, our high school party, and the Junior - Senior Prom. Needless to say, the yearbook took its usual toll of nerves and patience. Physically, our class changed very little. Phyllis Steinke came to us from Wapak St. Joe, and Doris Eisert dropped out, finding interests elsewhere. Scholastically, we will long remember those "world shaking" scholarship tests. The results made us realize that our long hours of study were not in vain. Last, but not least, we are extremely proud of the contribution our class made in the field of sports. We were lucky enough to be a sizeable part of the baseball and basketball teams with our members leading the cheers. Graduation will always be an important part of our life and we wish to thank anyone who had a part in making our success possible.

Senior Profiles

GENE BUBP

He's five feet eleven,
His hair is blonde.
And of Eileen
He's really fond.
He's long and thin
And loves his art.
And in law class
He's really smart.

EILEEN CLAUSING

We see brown hair above green eyes.
She's often present in Gene's sighs.
She likes to sew
She likes to sing.
In office work she's the latest thing.
She's part of "Quix of '56"
And in her work she's neat and quick.

DEAN DEERHAKE

His eyes are blue, he has red hair.
He's 6' tall; complexion fair.
We see him in the manager's den.
A general flunky he's always been.
Because of his actions and his lizzie
He lets us call him "Dean the Dizzie."

VIOLET DUDGEON

A future beautician we have here,
Quiet, amusing, but always sincere,
Brown hair paired with eyes of blue.
A whiz at law they tell us too.
She's 5'5" and very tame,
Violet Dudgeon is her name.

DONNA ESCHMEYER

Drifting music — the piano's fine.
Playing "by ear" she keeps in time.
She likes a certain St. Marys boy.
And bubbles over with laughter and joy.
A majorette is what we see,
But a beautician some day she will be.

CLARK FRONING

Down the floor goes "44"
And for the Rangers a higher score.
A baseball camp he did attend,
And letters to Juli he did send.
Eyes of blue and hair of blonde
Make a boy of whom we're fond.

JULI ANN HOGE

Blue eyes mixed with auburn hair
Make a lady sweet and fair.
Her hard work opened success's door,
It's fortunes for her and "44."
She led us all to build the "Quix."
And with the kids she liked to mix.

ANNE JONES

Her name's Anne Jones,
Her figure's fine.
They say "Fox" hunting's
Along her line.
As a cheerleader, she's done her best
She's lively, spunky, and full of zest.

Senior Profiles

DEAN KUCK

Eyes of brown, five feet eleven.
Looks as though he's in heaven.
He beats a drum with all his might
He's full of pep and too much fight.
Girls he knows from near and far.
His high school books are always ajar.

RONALD KUCK

Cars and motors are in his line.
As a mechanic his work is fine.
He goes to school, yet tends his job.
His short-lived beard once drew a mob.
His hair is brown and he's dark-complected,
But by school books he's not affected.

ELLA MAE KUCK

Her name is Ella Mae.
She's always bright and gay.
She's 5'7," one inch above.
For band and chorus she has a love.
Her hair is brown, her eyes the same.
To be a nurse is her chief aim.

KAREN LAMMERS

She's 5'6" her eyes are blue.
To which, Ned or nursing, will she be true?
She's always there on the Yearbook staff.
And with those cheers her fame will last.
We'll all admit she's pulled some pranks,
But for her company we give our thanks.

MARILYN LEFFEL

Small but mighty, that's our gal,
Always helpful, always a pal.
The bells she plays in our band.
She thinks her Jim is really grand.
She has hair of brown and eyes the same;
And for her giggling she gets her fame.

BOB McCLURE

Tall, dark, and handsome, that's our Bob.
And boss of the Memoir, that's his job.
He's also managed the basketball teams
And although quiet, has lots of steam.
We think he's heading for a career,
As an agricultural engineer.

NED NIEMEYER

His hair is blonde and his eyes are blue,
He's rather thin and 6' too.
In school he likes to study math,
And college seems his future path.
He backed the president his senior year;
And in left field he showed no fear.

MARJORIE McCUNE

"Our little Marjorie" she'll always be
To someone's heart she holds the key.
5'4" with eyes of brown—
She does her tasks without a frown.
Home Ec. she likes and chorus, too.
Of her friends she has quite a few.

JO ANN OTT

It's Jo Ann Ott whose name is here.
But it'll be changed by the end of the year.
Chorus has been her greatest treat;
And in Home Ec. she's extra neat.
It's "Whitey" who loves those eyes of blue,
But we say, Jo Ann, we love you too.

JOYCE SCHROER

Five feet two, but eyes not blue,
With sandy hair as another clue,
Her skin with freckles is adorned.
She's good on the trumpet, we've been informed.
At this moment she has no ties.
But, be careful, boys, of those hazel eyes!

LEE SCHROER

He was talkative and full of pep,
In baseball and basketball he was hep.
His goal will in the Navy be
To help to keep our country free.
His forgivable blue eyes and blondish hair
Attracted the girls both sweet and fair.

ROBERTA SCHROLUCKE

She's known as "Berts," and is 5'8;"
And for her duties she's never late.
She has lots of pep and typing skill;
And hard work seems to be her will.
Basketball programs, Memoir, and Quix --
All of these she helped to fix.

SHARON VORDERMARK

Eyes of blue, with short brown hair
And brown rimmed glasses she did wear.
In chorus and band she took a part,
And twisting her hair became an art.
In the office Sharon worked,
And in her duties she never shirked.

EVELYN SCHROER

Eyes of blue, red-gold hair.
She likes to sew and make her wear.
To be a beautician or nurse's aide
Is what will help her make the grade.
Her looks and wit are quite a treat,
No one can say she isn't neat.

Senior Profiles

PHYLLIS STEINKE

Dark lashes over fluttering eyes—
Better known as "Butterflies."
5'5" she's kind of short
A St. Joseph ring she's glad to sport.
As a hobby, sewing's a hit.
A bookkeeping career is her next bit.

RUTH WARNER

Eyes like the sky and hair quite long.
In all her subjects she's seldom wrong,
She's good on the horn and quick with the brains.
On the "Quix" and the Memoir she took great pains.
Within the walls of a hospital large
She may someday be the nurse in charge.

NATHAN STIENECKER

5'11"? who have we here?
Who finds basketball ever so dear?
He's proud of his blue eyes and black hair,
And in his duties he's always fair
He knows his girls from here to there,
And wishes he were a millionaire.

ANNELY WIERWILLE

She likes to sing and has the time.
Her big brown eyes help her line.
From St. Marys the boys do come,
But she likes best a certain one.
Four years in chorus and four in band.
We say, Annely, we think you're grand.

A dillar, a dollar, 10:00 scholars.
But we're not late.
We think you're great
For giving us your dollars.

Fine

We hope that the 1956 Memoir has completely met with your approval. When we first began to set up this radically different yearbook, we realized that a great many opinions, both bad and good, would be formed. However, we have honestly attempted to give all classes, activities, and individuals fair representation. We have made every effort to put out a yearbook that would make everyone in New Knoxville proud of us, our book, and our school.
